an opinion. Mr. Earl considered very carefully the facis of the case in connection with the status hearing upon it and arrived finally at the conclusion that there had been no violation of the national law by the authorities of South Carolina. The opinion of Solicitor Earl goes fully into a discussion of the law respecting immigration.

He finds that "so far as the prohibition against assisting the importation or migration of foreign laborers by promise of employment through advertisements abroad is concerned. States and Territories are expressly excepted from the operation of the law."

operation of the law."

He says further: "By the terms of the provise, States and Territories may offer inducements or make promises to foreign laborers, by advertisements printed and published in foreign countries, and they are not forbinden to 'assist' in the migration of the foreign laborers to whom such offers are addressed."

Gers are addressed."

While the opinion of Solicitor Earl is enoual in its application, he makes it lear that it relates to the facts of this riticular case, and indicates that different questions might arise if the facts accessive were slightly different. In inclusion it is stated as the opinion of as department:

"The plan pursued by Commissioner Tatson, as it is shown to have been carried out, does not involve a violation of as immigration laws of the United Staterobibiling the importation of contract

It is believed the outspoken opposition of Mr. Glass is shared by the great mass of Democrats and many Republicans in Tongress. The speech made by Secretary Caot last week, which is supposed to coice the sentiments of Mr. Roosevelt, in which the Secretary of State almost advocated the abolition of State lines and tate Legislatures, undoubtedly strength-ned the opposition to undertaking whole-sile changes of the Federal organic law, it is fessed that Mr. Roosevelt, owing his remarkable popularity, might dominate the convention to such an extention of the indian proposition of District of Columbia business.

The early morning session was devoted to the consideration of District of Columbia business. The convention to such an extention of the Indian bill and the consideration of District of Columbia business dentity indicating that the vulctide is near. The House, at 250, adjourned until noon to-morrow.

Mr. De Armond was thinking of when he advocated such a thing," said Representative Carter Glass, of Virginia, to-day. "I can hardly conceive of anything which would be more dangerous from the viewment of a citizen of a Southern Sinte, We have few enough rights recognized inderspected under the Constitution as it a being construed these days. I am hitterly opposed to taking a chance of tearing up everything and losing that which we have."

BANKERS' BILL IS REPORTED

House Committee of Banking and

WASHINGTON, D. C. December 18. WASHINGTON, D. C., December 18.—
The House Committee on Banking and Currency decided to-day to make a favorable report on a credit currency bill, which is but elightly different from the measure advocated by the American Bankors' Association. Ten Republicans attended the committee meeting to-day and all supported the measure agreed upon, while the four Democrats present opposed it. The Democrats in attendance were Representative Glass, of Virginia; Lewis, of Georgia; Gilespie, of Texas, and Legare, of South Carolina.
In the bill advocated by the bankers it was provided that a tax of 21-2 per

Troubled Almost a Year-Physicians Did No Good - Complexion Now Perfect and Skin Soft, White and Velvety. Tennessee Lady

"HIGHLY RECOMMENDS CUTICURA SOAP"

"I had been troubled with a breaking out on my face and arms for almost a year and had the services of several physicians, but they didn't seem to do any good. Some time ago one of my friends recommended Cuticura to me. I secured some, and after using it several months I was completely cured. I can highly recommend Cuticura Soap as being the very best complexion. Soap made. It creates a perfect complexion, leaving the skin soft, white, and velvety. I now use Cuticura Soap all the time and recommend its use to my friends." Maud Loggins,
